TRADEMARKS

Any word, name, symbol, device, or combination thereof on this site that is used to identify and distinguish Traeger goods or services constitutes a trademark or service mark (generally “trademark”), or trade dress of Traeger (Traeger). Traeger's trademarks and trade dress, whether used on this site or not, may not be used with any product or service that is not Traeger's without Traeger's express written permission. Under no circumstance may Traeger's trademarks, or trade dress be used in any manner that is likely to cause confusion among customers, or in any manner that disparages or discredits Traeger. All other trademarks not owned by Traeger that appear on this site are the property of their respective owners, who may or may not be affiliated with, connected to, or sponsored by Traeger.

PATENTS

Various products shown and otherwise displayed on this website and the operation of portions of this website are covered by one or more U.S. or international patents or patents pending. The following lists certain product or technology-specific patents, as well as a general list of all patents owned or licensed(*) by Traeger. Please note that many of Traeger's products may be covered by more than one patent, and thus in some cases by patents from multiple different sections listed below (e.g., a barbecue smoker employing patented design elements, and WIFIRE technology). (If you have any questions about whether a product or technology you are considering is covered by Traeger Intellectual Property, we invite you to contact us directly, and we will coordinate with Traeger counsel to provide you with a complimentary review of the product or technology in question.)
